Political pressures and crisis force Samuel to have to leave his political career because he is unwilling to compromise his Christian values. What will he do now? How will he support his family, since his wife makes only a meager salary? Will he survive his heart condition and surgery? Will his family be destitute? What about the train wreck in Bolivia? Will his wife and baby escape alive? Will they all live to make it to Japan to see Deidre Elaine's aging mother? How will God use them in His service when they face so many challenges and tragedies, which include their baby Petunia catching ebola and being burned by a sitter with boiling water? Will their faith hold strong in God when life seems to be chaotic and hangs in the balances? Read to find out. Highly recommended! Get the book now!
