

I Love You Like Crazy Cakes

Based on the authors own experience, this heartfelt story follows a woman on her journey to adopt a baby girl from China. From paperwork to plane flight, the narrative chronicles the babys trip from a crib in a big room shared with many other babies to her own crib in her own room in her new room. Jane Dyers delicate watercolors perfectly complement this charming text, a celebration of the love and joy a baby brings into the world.

From the dishwasher and microwave oven in the kitchen and the clock radio next to your bed, to the cellular phone you hold to your ear—sometimes for hours each day—exposure to EMR is growing and becoming a serious health threat. Read more... Genetics of Cancer Author: Dr. Magdy Aly Genetics of Cancer Genes are the heart and brain of our development. They dictate the color of our eyes, our complexion and most certainly our susceptibility to develop certain illnesses, among which, Cancer is one that we are most concerned about. Is there a way to determine if we are predisposed and carry a higher risk of developing certain cancers? Can we predict at what age we may develop an illness? And if so, what can, or rather, shall we do about it. Read more...
