

Building Faith in Families: Using the Sacraments in Pastoral Ministry

By tapping the power available in the Sacraments of the Christian Church, parents have a fighting chance to give themselves and their children what they truly need to get through life. By marshalling the energy and concern of parents, the church could find its most effective ally in shepherding people into a deepening union with God. Frank Dunn supplies church leaders with a fresh sacramental theology. Viewing the sacraments as events, releasing the power of God to bring the world to himself. Building Faith In Families envisions the rituals of marriage, baptism, eucharist, reconciliation, healing, ordination and confirmation as essential means for fulfilling the human destiny to be completely united with the Creator.
