

A World Diverse II: See comes between (b) and (d)

The poems in this publication are, in my mind, a reference of knowledge on life and of living life. Each poem has a message to convey on events or activities we may encounter in our lifetime. The manner in which we confront them and deal with them is unique to each and every one of us. I have set the table, it is now up to you to decide just how you will react on what is placed before you.

They dictate the color of our eyes, our complexion and most certainly our susceptibility to develop certain illnesses, among which, Cancer is one that we are most concerned about. Is there a way to determine if we are predisposed and carry a higher risk of developing certain cancers? Can we predict at what age we may develop an illness? And if so, what can, or rather, shall we do about it. Read more...
