

Look At This Land

This is a story told through the eyes of both a young girl and an older man who have discovered the same land. The characters stories parallel each other but their trajectories are very different. The young girl displays hope, selflessness, excitement, respect, and acceptance for all of life. Her counterpart in the story exhibits dismay, fear, greed, rejection, and an unquenchable ambition to change the natural surroundings for human benefit. A key message throughout the story is that a more conscience attitude towards nature can directly influence the achievement of environmental sustainability. Enjoy clever rhymes that both parents and children enjoy!

They dictate the color of our eyes, our complexion and most certainly our susceptibility to develop certain illnesses, among which, Cancer is one that we are most concerned about. Is there a way to determine if we are predisposed and carry a higher risk of developing certain cancers? Can we predict at what age we may develop an illness? And if so, what can, or rather, shall we do about it. Read more...
