

Shaped In Iniquity

This particular writing could be summed as a social order of Christianity in the local church. It almost penned as a cultural church experience, but wisdom says something deeper. People are the same everywhere in spite of demographics. Grandma would say, Same soup, different bowl. Sin is sin. There is theology; the study of religious faith, practice and experience. Then theres divinity; the super-natural power of the divine character of God. Most of all there is life application which bridges the processing of salvation, sanctification and righteousness. This is a keep it real, heart to heart synopsis both personal and collective.

They dictate the color of our eyes, our complexion and most certainly our susceptibility to develop certain illnesses, among which, Cancer is one that we are most concerned about. Is there a way to determine if we are predisposed and carry a higher risk of developing certain cancers? Can we predict at what age we may develop an illness? And if so, what can, or rather, shall we do about it. Read more...
