A Gift from God 365 Days Walking with God

With the distractions of every day life, its tough to keep our faith at the top of our ever expanding to do lists. To prove that you love Him, and that you believe in Him, this book is a quick and easy way to both remind ourselves why we love our Savior, Jesus Christ, and to get a daily dose of the good word. This Daily Devotional is an enjoyable means of helping us stay mindful of God, who never forgets about us, and to give thanks for everything He does, day in and day out. The author, Vickie Mitchell, doesnt shy away from the hard truths, nor could she, for this would mean a denial of part of the gift of life, and the power to understand it, and the freedom to love it. With entries that are short enough to read while drinking your morning coffee, or to read in the solace of your bed just before going to sleep, A Gift from God: 365 Days Walking With God cites some of the most inspirational passages in the Holy Bible. For those who seek to be with the Lord in all their deeds, reading A Gift From God guarantees a year of productive meditation and peace through wisdom.

From the dishwasher and microwave oven in the kitchen and the clock radio next to your bed, to the cellular phone you hold to your ear—sometimes for hours each day—exposure to EMR is growing and becoming a serious health threat. Read more... Genetics of Cancer Author: Dr. Magdy Aly Genetics of Cancer Genes are the heart and brain of our development. They dictate the color of our eyes, our complexion and most certainly our susceptibility to develop certain illnesses, among which, Cancer is one that we are most concerned about. Is there a way to determine if we are predisposed and carry a higher risk of developing certain cancers? Can we predict at what age we may develop an illness? And if so, what can, or rather, shall we do about it. Read more...
