

Finding what gives Peace: From Family Constellations to Mind Training to Spiritual Healing

Family Constellations has had a revolutionary impact on the therapeutic scene since the 1990s: the individual is seen in the family context and the effective forces of fate are rediscovered and appreciated. Reinhard Lier encountered Family Constellations, developed by Bert Hellinger, in 1996. As a first-generation student he experienced the upheaval of therapeutical understanding and the dawn into the dimensions of the soul. But that was not enough, Lier was looking for the spiritual tools to release healing impulses directly in the mind (the soul) of man. The missing link was found in 2006: the Spiritual Mind Training according to A Course in Miracles, which teaches a non-dual understanding of God for direct access to the healing of the mind. Follow the author on a journey from the roots of the family soul, with its historical embedment, over the experience of the Mind Training A Course in Miracles in the classroom of the world, all the way to the essential question: What heals us? and How can healing be received?. A practical book by a therapeutically and spiritually ambitious author.
