Putting, whining, crying, begging, pleading, fights, anger. All these reactions lead to family conflict. In this five-week IMPACT small group, parents and kids will spend time addressing common problems that lead to stress in the family. They will take a look at what the Bible has to say and learn some strategies for correctly handling the behaviors. By role-playing and experiencing problem-solving techniques in a safe, group setting, parents will feel more empowered to make lasting change in their own homes.
